Signs of Attempt to Expand the Strike Into Phase of "World Revolution" Is Seen

ONE BIG UNION SOUGHT

Grunau, Head of Chicago Yard-men's Association, Supplanted by I. W. W. Adherent

Washington, April 13. — Evidence of the activity of Industrial Workers of the World toward increasing and maintaining the unauthorized railroad strike continues to accumulate at the department of justice and officials admitted tonight that they saw signs of an attempt to expand the rail strike into one "phase of a world revolution."

Reports from field agents of the departments were not as yet complete enough to permit determination of the government's course in dealing with the situation. Attorney General Palmer said "no announcement as to the government's plan was to be expected before tomorrow at the earliest."

President Wilson today issued a call for his cabinet to meet tomorrow morning. It will be the first session of Mr. Wilson's official advisors since his western speaking trip, in the course of which he was taken ill and the strike situation was understood to have prompted the call for the meeting. In some quarters it was thought an an-
ment's course would follow the cabinet meeting.

Personnel of Board.

The president also sent to the senate today the nomination of the nine men representing employers, employees and the public whom he has selected to compose the labor board provided under the transportation act to deal with railway labor disputes.

The men selected were:

Representing the public: George W.
Hanger, Washington, D. C.; Henry Hunt, Cincinnati; R. M. Barton, Tennessee.

Representing the railroad corporations: Horace Baker, J. H. Elliott and William L. Park.

Representing the employers: Albert Phillips, A. O. Wharton and James J. Forrester.

The nominations were immediately referred to the interstate commerce committee which is expected to take action on them tomorrow.

One big union as the Canadian radical organization, including the I.
W. W., is known. He will also be able to disclose through official reports that John Grunau, head of the Chicago Yardmen's association, the members of which were the first in the country to quit their posts, has been supplanted by an active member of the I. W. W.

Propaganda of I. W. W. origin calling upon all railroad workers to join in asserting their power and tempting them with the statement that "the golden opportunity for which you have been looking has arrived" has been found by federal agents. Officials said they believed this unseen power had been pushing the strikers forward and now threatened to expand the walkout. "Months and months of I. W. W. campaigning" to that end having been disclosed. Reports today told of barracks in the ranks of shopmen in many centers. They also uncovered the nature of the I. W. W. propaganda in process of distribution, some described as being "as dangerous as the communist literature." All of it advocates the "one big union" idea and urged the strikers and "faint hearted" to secede from affiliation with the four great railroad brother-hoods.

Columbus, O., April 13.—Between 10 and 160 car repairs on the Big Four railroad here went on strike tonight in sympathy with the switchmen. Loyal railway employees said this "strike would prevent inspection of any cars."

CONGRESS ADJOURNS JUNE 5.

Washington, April 13.—After a conference today with Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Representative Montgomery of Wyoming, the Republican leader in the house, said he believed congress would adjourn June 5th. All appropriation measures will be ready for approval by May 15, he said, and other important pending legislation would be disposed of by June 1.

NEW YORK REBELS SPURN PEACE WITHOUT DEFINITE GUARANTEES

Food Shortage Meanwhile Threatens Life of Metropolis, Train Service of All Branches Being So Badly Crippled That Scarcely Any Trains Are Moving

New York, April 13. — The rebellious railroad strikers of Greater New York, meeting in Jersey City tonight, unanimously rejected all overtures of peace.

The rejection came at the conclusion of the report of an executive committee of strikers which had conferred through the day with chiefs of the railroad brotherhoods and the mayor of Jersey City.

A statement issued by the executive committee for the strikers said there could be no settlement "until definite guarantees" were made to them concerning their demands for higher wages and better working conditions.

The announcement followed close upon a declaration of representatives of the Railroad Managers' association predicting a break in the mob movement within the next few days. The strikers' decision to accept no compromise emphasized the day's developments, which included substantial departures to the strike ranks and strenuous efforts by the railroads to relieve the emergency with volunteers.

City Gets Few Cars of Foodstuffs.
Additional passenger trains have been cancelled by some of the railroads during the day and freight service was so badly crippled that only a few cars of foodstuffs were moved into the city. No non perishable freight was moving.

The strikers announced another conference would be held tomorrow between the executive committee, the chiefs of the railroad brotherhoods, the mayor of New York, the New York city health commissioner and the mayor of Jersey City.

The executive committee strikers were moving milk trains into New York and had under consideration the necessity of handling foodstuffs.
Timothy Shea, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, was criticised by the strikers' executive committee as "entirely too optimistic" and he was held responsible for the "impression following the conference that the men would vote to return to their jobs."

Strikers Stipulate Demands.
A supplemental statement including the strikers demands was issued by the executive committee. In making the demands, the committee said it had taken into consideration:

The scale of wages paid for similar work in other industries; the relation between wages and the cost of living; the hazard of employment; training, and skill required; the degree of responsibility; the character and regularity of employment; and the inequalities of increase in wages or of treatment, the result of previous wage orders or adjustments.

In addition to the wage demands previously announced, the statement said:

"We further demand the guarantee of 26 working days for all assigned men. We further demand that the system of physical examination be abolished after applicants have passed a preliminary examination. Any employee who fails to pass the prescribed color test shall be given a field test and if he fails to pass the field test he shall be retained in the service in any capacity that his physical condition will enable him to continue to perform and at the same rate of pay that the applicant received in his former position."

Urges Mayor to Exercise Authority.
The demands also prescribe working conditions for railway and steamship clerks, freight handlers, express and station employees and includes a wage scale calling for a 50 per cent increase for these men retroactive to June 1, 1919.

Several sporadic attempts to adjust the strike or start investigations were made today. The shippers conference committee passed a resolution urging Mayor Hylan "to enforce the law in relieving the present intolerable conditions." Public Service Commissioner Louis Nixon, directed a hearing beheld and an investigation be made into the cause of the strike. This hearing will begin Thursday morning.

A resolution was introduced at a meeting of the New York board of aldermen today by a socialist alderman directing the city commissioner of health to seize all foodstuffs now held in storage houses here to avoid artificial inflation of prices and to insure proper distribution. The motion was tabled when another alderman declared there was a six months' supply of food on hand.

Pascale Meat Supply Low.
At Pascale, N. J., it was announced that only a three days' supply of meat was on hand and the city made arrangements for the transportation of meat by motor trucks. J. J. Manell, representing the Railroad Managers' association, announced he would accept the services of volunteer college students and others who might be of service in handling locomotives.

High railway officials of the Erie worked as switchmen today.

Railroad officials tonight announced 19 trains would be run tomorrow by civilian volunteers. Nine of these will be brought into the Erie station here by crews of several suburban communities.

The Erie announced that 620 of the 640 students of Stevens Institute had marched to the Erie station and asked to be put to work as strike breakers.
That 1,600 students at Princeton university had pledged they would report for duty in New Jersey stations five hours after they were called.

The 3,500 employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, members of the Amalgamated association of Street and Electric Railway employees tonight voted unanimously to live up to their agreement.

STRIKE DYING OUT WEST OF CHICAGO

Embargoes Are Lifted as Yard-men in Half Dozen Centers Return to Their Work

ALBANY WALKOUT BRIEF

West Albany Employees of Central Resume Their Duties After Two Hours' Strike

Chicago, April 13. — Reports from rail centers in central and far western states tonight indicated a great improvement in strike conditions.

Although leaders of the insurgent switchmen and yardmen strenuously denied that serious defections had occurred in their ranks, railroad heads and officers of the brotherhood who are fighting the unauthorized walkout declared the strike in western territory was gradually dying out.

Strikers in a half dozen cities and towns returned to work today, railroad men at other points voted not to join the walkout and embargoes were lifted by several railroads.

Several railroads in the Chicago terminal district reported operations as virtually normal. Live stock receipts today were 236 cars, including 4,000 cattle, 3,000 hogs and 7,000 sheep and 10,000 packing house workers returned to duty.

Arrest Walkout Agitators.

New Orleans, La., April 13.—Forrest C. Pendleton, department of justice agent and department officers, raided a hall in which a meeting of 200 members of the local yardmen's association was being held tonight and arrested six of the leaders on federal warrants charging them with interfering with the United States mails.

Resume Work Tomorrow.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 13.—Passenger service on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad which was suspended today by a strike of trainmen will be resumed early tomorrow, according to an official statement given out here tonight by G. H. Sines, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Train-men.

Rochester Feels Strike.

Rochester, April 12. — Rochester switchmen and trainmen so far have resisted attempts to induce them to join in the strike elsewhere. This city already is feeling the effects of the strike, however. Meat prices have advanced and manufacturers have made arrangements to ship their products by motor truck to points within a thousand mile radius beginning Monday.

Another Victory Won.

Waterbury, Conn., April 13. — Seventy-five switchmen who walked out of the local yards today agreed at a meeting tonight to return to work at once. This action followed the disclosure by local union officials that credentials shown by two mysterious strangers who circulated among the men yesterday, claiming that they represented the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, were false.

Central Strike Short.

Albany, April 13. — A walkout of New York Central switchmen and yard tenders at the West Albany yards was of short duration tonight.
The men, after a short meeting, decided to resume work, and within two hours the work was progressing as usual.

Consult Brotherhood Chiefs.

Syracuse, April 13. — A committee appointed by Syracuse and Utica members of the various railroad brotherhoods left tonight for Cleveland, Ohio, to hold a conference with brotherhood leaders. The committee issued a statement tonight reporting that "all men who quit their jobs or were dismissed from service during the crisis," had been reinstated.

THOUSAND IRISH GIRLS HERE.

New York, April 13.—More than 1,000 girls today inaugurated what is expected to be a great influx of immigrants from Ireland. The girls, most of whom arrived on the steamship Baltic, went to the homes of friends or relatives in this city, and Reverend Anthony Grogan of the home for Irish immigrant girls, said their arrival would help relieve the shortage of domestic servants.

MAJOR LEAGUES BEGIN PENNANT RACE TODAY

Banner Season in the History of Professional Baseball Is Freely Predicted

Major league baseball teams open the season today in seven National and American circuit cities, weather permitting. In the initial games of what is expected to be one of the best pennant contests in the history of the professional organization.

Forecasts indicate fair and colder weather with high winds for a majority of the baseball parks, but this will heavily check the enthusiasm of baseball fans judging from reports of advance reservation sales from all the cities involved.

According to the schedules of the two leagues there will be opening games in two eastern and two western cities of each circuit today and the visiting teams will, in turn, open the season at their own ball parks on April 22.

In the National league, Pittsburg will play at St. Louis, Chicago at Cincinnati, Philadelphia at Brooklyn and Boston at New York. The American league program calls for New York at Philadelphia, Washington at Boston, St. Louis at Cleveland and Detroit at Chicago.

Analysis of the strength of the various teams on the eve of the pennant races appeared to indicate that there will be several changes in the standing of the clubs at the close of the first month of the races as compared with that of a year ago. While it will be fully a month before any accurate line can be obtained upon the real strength of the teams, it would appear from the form displayed in spring practice that they can be grouped generally as follows:

National League — Brooklyn, Chicago and Philadelphia clubs appear to be stronger than last season, while New York, Pittsburg and St. Louis are about equal in playing strength to the form shown early in 1919. Boston and Cincinnati are not judged to be so strong as was the case last year, according to close followers of baseball.

American League — Philadelphia, Washington, New York and Cleveland are all expected to play a more impressive game this season than was shown respectively last year. St. Louis, Chicago and Detroit are classed as equal to their power of 12 months ago, while Boston falls below the form of 1919.

STILL CONSIDER PROBE OF ANTI-SALOON WORK

Recommendations That No Action Be Taken, However, Are Being Urged

Albany, April 13.—The assembly judiciary committee tomorrow will frame reports to be submitted to the assembly on the resolution referred to it by the lower house, calling for the interrogation of William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league and for investigation of the league's activities. This announcement was made tonight by Louis M.
Martin, chairman of the committee.

Mr. Martin said that a vote of the committee as to its recommendations would be taken. He said that he had had a "minute's conference" with Attorney General Charles D. Newton today regarding the resolution but that nothing was done as Mr. Newton had to leave for Washington.

It was reported at the capitol tonight that a majority of the committee would vote to recommend that no action be taken regarding an investigation or for the interrogation of Mr. Anderson. They are of the opinion, it was said, that none of the statements alleged to have been made by Mr. Anderson could be construed as "in contempt of the assembly as charged, although they may be in contempt of Assemblyman Louis A.
Cuvillier and Colonel Ransom H. Gillett."

WOOD RELINQUISHES LEAVE

Waives Personal Interests to Resume His Army Duties at "Critical Time."

Boston, April 12. — Major General Leonard Wood today canceled the leave of absence which he obtained to make a campaign for the Republican nomination for president, and said he would leave later in the day for Chicago to resume his duties as commanding general of the Central department. He stated that his action was due to railroad strike conditions.

General Wood made the announcement at a breakfast tendered him at the Boston City club. He said:

"The situation of growing seriousness in the country is such that I feel it is my duty to give up my leave and to return to my post of command in Chicago. The situation is not one which allows personal considerations to enter into the matter in the least."

General Wood canceled all of his engagements. He is now on a two-months' leave which was granted him by the war department on March 26.
He will leave for Chicago at 4:45 p. m.

ARMY FOOD AVAILABLE TO RELIEVE SHORTAGE

War Department Comes to Rescue of Cities Stricken by the Rail Strike

Washington, April 13. — Surplus supplies of frozen beef, canned roast beef and bacon, which the war department has in storage in railroad centers, were made available today for use in relieving any serious food shortage resulting from the railroad strike. The department advised state and municipal authorities that the supplies would be available at the warehouses on application.

"The offer of the war department," the official announcement said, "is not restricted to the communities in which the supplies are located, but it is made general to the American public. Communities adjacent to store-houses are invited to take advantage of this offering."

An officer of the quartermaster corps was specially detailed today to each storage center with full authority to book orders, make sales and effect deliveries. Distribution should be under way in 48 hours, the announcement said.

Canned roast beef is offered at 15 cents per one pound tin, bacon at 23 cents per pound and the frozen beef at 10 1/2 cents per pound. Sales of the canned stuff will be made in case lots only and in units of eight quarters in the case of frozen meat.

SEVENTY-ONE BILLS PASSED

Preparations For Fast Approaching Adjournment Date, Are Made By All.

Albany, April 13.—Passage of 71 bills and the advancement of nine to the order of final passage marked an all day session of the assembly today. With the adjournment of the legislature less than two weeks distant, the house at the request of the speaker lost no time in getting down to business.

Among the bills passed was the Kenyon-Mullin measure which Assemblyman Kenyon said is aimed to standardize the practice of nursing.
The bill now goes to the governor.

Another bill by Assemblyman Kenyon, designed to authorize the state health commissioner to establish district laboratory supply stations and to appoint any municipal health officer as director of the laboratory, met with favorable action.

Albany, April 13.—The senate finance committee tonight voted to re-nation of George V. McLaughlin of Brooklyn, as state superintendent of banks to succeed George I. Skinner, expires July 1, next.

Better Pay For Teachers.

Albany, April 13. — The Lockwood bill, designed to increase the salaries of teachers in the New York state col-at an executive meeting today.

Tax for Teacher's Pay.

Albany, April 13. — Republican and Democratic members of the assembly from New York city in conference late today voted to demand that the legislature impose a tax of one and one half mills on real property so as to provide adequate salaries for the school teachers of the state.

Another Commission Urged.

rules committee today introduced in the legislature a bill designed to create a health conservation investigating commission to make a study of the extent, prevention and treatment of sickness. The measure carries an appropriation of $25,000.

LOWDEN AHEAD OF WOOD IN ILLINOIS PRIMARIES

Chicago, Ill., April 13.—Governor Frank D. Lowden was leading General Leonard Wood by 11,559 in the Illinois presidential primaries with a little less than one-fifth of the entire state heard from tonight. This included the votes of both men and women.

Counting men only Lowden's lead was 10,250 on the same returns.
Lowden's total, men and women, was 44,955 and Wood's 22,415. Senator Johnson, whose name was written in on the ballots, had 12,842 on the same returns.

Poughkeepsie Now Included.

Poughkeepsie, April 13.—Between 200 and 300 section hands on the Central New England railroad, which operates the Poughkeepsie bridge route, voted at a secret meeting here today to strike for an eight-hour day and pay of $1.25 an hour. Some of the switchmen on the road are already out.
These section hands are employed from Maybrook, N. Y., to Hartford, Conn. Leaders tonight threatened to tie up the road if their demands were not met.

Thompson Openly Accuses Assembly of Misconduct During Trial of Ousted Members

WALKER IS INDIGNANT

Minority Leader Demands Retraction of Statement but Thompson Declines

Albany, April 13.—Charges that liquor was used in great quantities to influence votes to unseat the five Socialist assemblymen, were made in the senate today by Senator George E.
Thompson of Niagara. Senator Thompson's accusations were voiced in the course of the debate on the passage of the bills recommended by the Luak committee which investigated radical activities.

Minority Leader James J. Walker, in asking that Senator Thompson give a "bill of particulars," declared that after the investigation of charges made last year by Senator Thompson, that a slush fund of $500,000 had been raised to facilitate the passage of the Carlson-Martin increased trolley fare bill, he was not inclined to put much credence in the Thompson statement.

Tells of Chamber Scenes.

In making his general accusation against the assembly, Senator Thompson said:

"A good deal of liquor was on hand and was used for the purpose of getting votes the night the Socialists were thrown out. Not only was liquor used, but great quantities of it, so much that they had to be carried out of the chamber."

"I don't think that Mark Daly," said Thompson, referring to the legislative agent of an association of merchants and manufacturers, "or anybody else ought to be up here with liquor for use during the legislative session to influence votes."

At this point, Thompson asked unanimous consent to be excused from the senate chamber in order to attend a committee hearing. Senator Walker objected.

"You have accused a man of bringing liquor and now it is up to you to give the senate the truth as you know it," said the minority leader. "I won't give unanimous consent for your excuse until you have given us a bill of particulars."

Thompson Stands Pat.

"I won't give it now," Thompson retorted. "It is immaterial to me, personally, whether I am excused or not."

"I insist that you retract what you said," Senator Walker persisted.

"I have made the statement," Senator Thompson replied, "and I'll stand by it. I'll retract nothing."

"You have pronounced the greatest slander that has ever been made against the legislature," Senator Walker declared. "You have said that men came here with liquor to get men drunk for the purpose of influencing votes."

"I didn't say for what purpose," interjected Senator Thompson.

"Yes you did," the minority leader replied. "I won't insist that the record be read, but I'll leave it to the memories of the men about this circle."

Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, Democrat of New York, announced tonight that he probably would introduce a resolution in the assembly, calling upon Senator Thompson to prove his charges against members of the assembly.

ANTI-SEDITION BILLS ARE PASSED BY SENATE

mittee Are Supported by Substantial Majorities

Albany, April 13.—The senate after debate of more than six hours, tonight passed three of the anti-sedition bills recommended by the Luak joint legislative committee that investigated radical activities. The majorities on each bill was substantial.

The bills passed are designed to provide:

That the attorney general be authorized to establish and maintain in his office a bureau for the investigation and prosecution of alleged violation of the law against criminal anarchy.

That the education law be amended so as to require school teachers to take an oath of loyalty to the constitution of the state and nation before they can qualify as teachers.

That private educational institutions be licensed by and under supervision of the state board of regents.
This bill is aimed at such institutions as the Rand school of social sciences.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Weak Links in a Strong Chain

That's just what imitation parts are when they become a part of your Ford car. They look strong enough, but the metal isn't there—the strong, durable Vanadium steel that goes into the Ford chassis and every Ford part. Ford parts are specially cast and heat-treated, each according to its use. Some require a hard, dent-like wearing surface, others need resiliency, and some need just "touchiness."

Ford metallurgists have been studying these problems for sixteen years and know just how each unit should be made to endure a maximum of wear and tear. They know that best results can be obtained only by the use of special formulas for different parts, and that lowest Ford parts wear from thirty-five to one hundred per cent. longer than competitors'. We carry complete assortments of genuine Ford parts for both passenger cars and trucks. And our garage is equipped to give careful prompt Ford service—from minor adjustments to complete overhauls. Drive in, it's better to be safe than sorry. Come to the Authorized Ford dealer for service.

STRIKE LOSES HOLD ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Belief That Disturbance Is Waning Tends to Confident Attitude by Traders

New York, April 12.—Traders and professional interests almost as a whole seemed disposed to pay less attention to the railroad strike today, basing their more confident attitude on the belief that the strike is on the wane. The stock market was strong only in spots, however, food shares, secondary steel, equipments, shippings and miscellaneous specialties making variable gains, while erstwhile leaders in the industrial division were irregular and occasionally heavy.

Conditions in the money market were not materially altered, call loans opening at 7 per cent and advancing to 12 on the usual belated demand in the final dealings. Time funds were increasingly scarce, but local and interior banks were reported as buyers of merchant paper.

Foreign exchange rallied from its recent continuous depression, due chiefly, it was believed, to reduced offerings. British, French and Italian bills made up part of yesterday's reversal, but the German mark broke sharply.

French interest attached to the gold export movement by reason of further extensive engagement of the metal for shipment to South America. Bankers in touch with the situation declared that exports are founded solely on the fact that exchange at Buenos Ayres continued on the gold import point.

Stocks were at their best in the last hour when oils of the Texas and Mexican group were run up suddenly at the expense of the shorts. Shippings and minor industrials also participated in the advance, a firm to strong tone prevailing at the close.

Bonds at no time shared in the strength of the stock market, that division suffering further impairment from the weakness of liberty and victory issues, as well as lower tendency for rails.

Old U. S. 2's rose three-eighths on call and Panama 3's declined one point on call. Others unchanged.

"Gosh! How my back aches!" After Grip, "flu" or cold, the kidneys and bladder are often affected—called nephritis, or inflammation of kidneys.

This is the red flag of danger—better be wise and check the further inroads of kidney disease by obtaining that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, known as Anuric (an-uric-acid), because it expels the uric acid poison from the body and removes those pains, such as backache, rheumatism in muscles and joints.

Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

Send Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., ten cents for trial package of Anuric Tablets.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I suffered for several years with kidney trouble. My kidneys would become congested and I had such severe pains across my back that I could scarcely get up in the morning. I also had bladder weakness. I began taking 'Anuric' and it relieved me of this condition when all other medicines had failed." — VAL-

SKUNK' HOWAT SAYS OF KANSAS GOVERNOR

Mine Workers' Leader Also Attacks Judge Who Sentenced Him to Jail

Gard, Kas., April 12.—Alexander Howat, head of the Kansas coal miners union, speaking by permission of the sheriff of Crawford county, denounced Governor Allen of Kansas as "a skunk of a governor" before a crowd of several thousand persons, mostly miners and their wives, gathered in front of the jail here today.

Howat is in jail in contempt of court for refusing to testify before the state industrial court.

"We won't recognize this court," Howat said, referring to the court of industrial relations before which he refused to appear as witness. "It is composed of three corporation lawyers appointed by that skunk of a governor, Allen."

Howat also paid his respects to Judge Andrew J. Curran of the Crawford county district court, who sentenced him to jail for contempt. Judge Curran had been referred to in a newspaper story as a sturdy American. "They talk about sturdy Americans," Howat said, "sturdy Americans who send men to jail who have committed no crimes. The men and women are going to attend to the sturdy American when they get the opportunity."

STRIKE OUT DANCING, CARDS AND THEATRES

New York Methodist Conference Favors Amending Church Discipline Accordingly

Kingsport, April 12.—The New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal church today adopted a resolution endorsing a proposal to amend church discipline by striking out specific prohibition of playing cards, dancing and theatre going. This action was taken after a spirited debate and after the conference had reconsidered its previous decision to take no action at this time.

"If I were a devil I would snap myself on the back over this action of the conference," declared the Rev. J. J. Dean, one of the oldest members, who led the opposition forces. A proposed amendment to prohibit only "obscure dancing" was drowned in laughter.

Resolutions also were adopted protesting against further increases in overhead church organization and multiplication of officials, urging greater freedom for pastors and demanding that trained laymen do the work of church business organization instead of clergymen.

ARMY CAMP SCANDAL AIRED

Republicans Denounce and Democrats Uphold Government's System of Building.

Washington, April 12.—After Republican leaders had denounced and Democrats had upheld the government's system of building army camps in the rush days of war, the house made ready today for a fight tomorrow on two proposals for dealing with persons alleged to have reaped rich profits out of alleged extravagance and waste. Along with the investigating committee's report attacking the methods of construction the Republican majority presented a resolution directing that evidence obtained during the nine months' investigation be turned over to the attorney general with the request that he institute civil and criminal proceedings. The Democrats countered with a sub-resolution proposing to instruct the committee to name persons, firms and corporations "which should be investigated by the attorney general" before directing that officials proceed.

Sh-h-h! Hes off again. On a new trail this time—as one of those regular made-to-order-by-mail "detectives," Larry the laugh-maker, gum shoes himself into one hilarious hole after the other. Under the ground and up in the air he leads the merry man-hunt team—but that is the big surprise of this Larry Semon comedy.

That's what this comedy contains. And lots of them. It begins with a laugh and ends with a roar. HOW TO SAVE MILLIONS.

"When the farmer of New York neglects or improperly markets the trees from his woodlot, he is doing his share to send $50,000,000 a year out of the state, of which half could be saved for himself and the state, if he cultivated his trees," said Professor Russell T. Green, of the Forest Extension department of the New York state college, who recently visited this county in the interests of the Otsego foresting movement.

"If he had a hen which did not lay, would he feed her corn or other grain? If he had a cow which was through with its milking days, would he continue to feed her? And yet the farmer of New York state today is letting millions of acres go to waste, which might be productive.

"The farm forest are in the state," Prof. Green continued, is about 4-000,000 acres. On a basis of 200 board feet per acre per year, a production which would be not hard to secure under proper management, the farmer would be able to provide one-third of the entire state's bill of lumber for the year. The state, however, is today sending outside of its borders $50,000,000 a year of the $125,000,000 which it pays annually for lumber.
The last year's figures will probably show an increase over this.

In other words, the part of the farmer's acreage which could produce good trees and which is left idle, is FOODSTUFFS IN STORAGE.

The monthly report of cold storage holdings just issued by Commissioner Eugene H. Porter of the state division of foods and markets shows that the quantity of all the major foodstuffs in storage in the licensed public warehouses of the state on April 1 was considerable less than last year at the same date.

This fact is of serious import at this time because of the threatened tie-up of the railroads which may bring about a shortage in the fresh food supplies arriving in the cities and compel the using of the surplus which has been stored.

All important foodstuffs show decreases compared to last month. Compared to the holdings one year ago, butter, eggs, frozen beef and frozen fish shows the most notable decreases, ranging from over fifteen million pounds for beef to forty-four thousand cases for eggs.

Cheese, frozen pork and miscellaneous meat are the only important commodities which show larger amounts in storage than last year, with an increase of over three million pounds for cheese and approximately seven hundred thousand pounds for frozen pork.

W. H. JOHNSON IN BINGHAMTON.

Press Pays High Tribute to Address—May Enter Lecture Field.

Both the Binghamton Sun and the Binghamton Press pay high tribute to the lecture delivered by Hon. W. H.
Johnson of this city before the members of the University club last Saturday evening. His theme was "Reminiscences of a Country Lawyer," and the Press says that "the predication that the address would be a snappy and witty series of anecdotes covering his experiences was amply fulfilled."

"Mr. Johnson," it says, "was born in Delaware county in the thirties, and had had a great part in the development of the state during the greater portion of his life. He has known intimately many of the great men of more than two generations and his knowledge of six judicial districts covers four generations of judges. He told many interesting anecdotes of years long past, beginning with his first 'client' to whom he furnished a written answer to a complaint for 25 cents, and what happened when that 'answer' was presented in court, and going on down to the later days of his association with three governors and several legislatures, as a member of the Statutory Revision commission and special advisor. The three governors were Governors Morton, Black and Roosevelt. Mr. Johnson's comments upon the three men were illuminating not only as to the men themselves, but also as to Mr. Johnson's sagacity and his understanding of men."

During his stay in Binghamton, Mr.
Johnson was the guest of Justice Tu-hill, who introduced him at the meeting, at the close of which, again to quote the Press, "Mr. Johnson was given an ovation."

It will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. Johnson to learn that this well-known attorney, who has been called both the Nestor and the Solon of the Oneonta bar, contemplates entering the lecture field. His list of lecturers, besides the one above referred to, include Religion in Politics, "Moral Government" and "The Dignity of Labor." Any organization is to be congratulated which secures his services.

LEAVES HIS BODY TO SCIENCE.

Dr. Joseph Simms, Native of Otsego and Famous Anatomist, Presents Brain to Dr. Spitzka—Visited Oneonta and Presented Books to Public Library.

As a result of an agreement made several years ago, the body of Dr. Joseph Simms, a famous anatomist, who died Sunday night at the Hotel Empire, New York city, has been turned over to the College of Physicians and Surgeons in the interests of medical science. His brain and heart will be weighed and the brain analyzed. Legal authority for such disposal of the body was granted Dr. Simms' widow in New York on Monday.

Dr. Simms, who was almost 87 at the time of his death, was one of several men who are under agreement to leave their bodies and brains to the College of Physicians and Surgeons, where Dr. Edward Anthony Spitzka is a demonstrator. Dr. Simms agreed that his brain should be used for scientific analysis, but provided that Dr.
Spitzka, must do the dissecting himself, which proviso Dr. Spitzka carried out Monday.

On Saturday Dr. Simms was stricken with apoplexy and his wife called in Dr. Spitzka, which also was one of the terms of the agreement.

Dr. Simms was a well known anatomist and lectured in the United States, England and Australia. He was a friend of Huxley, Darwin and Spencer.
He was a member of an organization whose principal purpose is the acquisition and analysis of the brains of prominent men.

Dr. Simms was born at Plainfield Center, September 3, 1833, and was a direct descendant of King Robert II. of Scotland, and on the maternal side of one of the generals who invaded England with William the Conqueror.
His first ancestor in America settled in Connecticut in 1639, the family coming to Plainfield in the early years of the nineteenth century.

After several years as a public school teacher and lecturer and serving in the Union army in the Civil war, he studied in the Medical school of New York university, the College of Physicians and Surgeons and the Eclectic Medical college of New York, receiving his M. D. from the first named in 1871. He spent several years in traveling in all parts of the world, and studied all forms of animal life. He paid particular attention to physiognomy. He desired to be known as a physiognomist. Most of his published writings were on that subject.

He was married in 1865 to Miss Jemima Sinclair, of Edinburgh, Scotland, who survives him.
Dr. Simms, who was a man of abundant wealth, had several times visited Oneonta, his last visit being perhaps ten years ago. A little later he sent a considerable collection of books to the Oneonta Public library, among them an extensive work of American Biography; and less than a year ago he sent a smaller collection in the main of scientific works. Among the books by him now in the library is a quite large and comprehensive volume, written by himself, on "Human Physiognomy."

New York M. E. Conference Endorses Proposed Amendments to Discipline.

Kingsport, April 13.—The New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal church Monday adopted a resolution endorsing a proposal to amend church discipline by striking out specific prohibition of playing cards, dancing and theatre-going. This action was taken after a spirited debate and after the conference had reconsidered its previous decision to take no action at this time.

Resolutions also were adopted pre-testing against further increases in overhead church organizations and multiplication of officials; urging greater freedom for pastors; and demanding that trained laymen do the work of church business organization, instead of clergymen.

The Rural School Problem.

An informal meeting of the taxpayers and patrons of the schools of West Laurens and vicinity will be held at the West Laurens Community church, Friday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock.

The district superintendent of schools, Harrison Cossart, will give an illustrated stereopticon lecture on "Rural Schools." The idea of the meeting is to get the people together for an informal discussion of the rural school problem and how best to solve it. Interested parties are urged to be present and to ask questions or offer suggestions.

Delhi School May Get Its Barn.

In the list of items contained in this year's supply bills which were voted in a message sent to the legislature on Monday were appropriations amounting to $544,199.62. Among them was one appropriation of $2,500 for the erection of a hog and calf barn for the school of agriculture and domestic science at Delhi.
This item is vetoed, says Governor Smith, because it had been certified to him that the sum of $2,500 was sufficient to perform the work. If it is returned to him in a supplemental bill at $2,500, he will accept the item.

Return to West Exeter.

In the list of pastors for the Oneonta district, Wyoming Methodist Episcopal conference, printed in The Star yesterday, the name of Rev.
Charles M. Adams was omitted. Mr.
Adams returns for the third year to the church at West Exeter.

SEEKS SENATE NOMINATION

Hon. Lynn J. Arnold Announces He Is "Anti-Prussian" Candidate To Succeed Wadsworth. Will Contest Election of Barnes and Gleason as Delegates—Statement Issued at Kingston.

Judge Lynn J. Arnold of Cooperstown and Albany was in Kingston last week, and after registering in characteristic fashion at the Eagle gave out an interview which appears in full in the Freeman of Friday. In his statement Judge Arnold says:

"I am the candidate of the Anti-Prussian party for United States senator from the state of New York, and I have begun my candidacy in the city of Kingston which was the first capital of representative government in the United States as founded by the fathers.

"It is fitting that a campaign to restore representative government in this state and in the United States should be begun in the old city of Kingston.

"Representative government must be restored and it will be restored and as the Anti-Prussian candidate for United States senator from the state of New York I will be elected by the registered voters of this state at the general election in November.
They will vote for me, the men and women irrespective of present day party labels which mean nothing at Albany or at Washington.

"To overthrow the Prussian party I shall be a candidate in the Republican primaries as well as the Democratic primaries to be held in September and I shall be a candidate of the Independents under the party emblem of the Anti-Prussian party of the state.

"When I enter the United States senate on the 4th of March, next, from the state of New York, I shall begin a campaign to repeal the 18th amendment; the Volstead enforcement and all of the fool laws which have been enacted since 1898 when the campaign of the kaiser began in earnest to obtain control of the whole world."

Following his statement, from which the above is an extract, Judge Arnold stated that he had employed counsel and would contest the counting of any ballots marked for Messrs.
Gleason and Barnes, as delegates to the Republican National convention.
He further said that he would offer no objection to Major Blakeslee being declared elected as a delegate, or to the choice of James P. Hill and Miss Wardwell as alternates, but he also holds that he is legally and duly elected delegate to the convention.

Good Old Fashioned Faith —That's What The World Needs Most

WHAT is the cure for the world's present troubles—for unrest and envy and covetousness and fear?

Legislation? Industrial compromises? Political readjustments?
We've tried them all, and they do not satisfy.

We're hungry and thirsty for Faith.

"The world needs a genuine religious revival," cabled the London financial editor of the New York Evening Post recently.
And he added: "This is the view of hard-headed business men."

What business men are now proclaiming the churches have always proclaimed. You must touch the spirits of men if you are to change their lives: only to the extent of their faith in each other can they work together. All remedies are makeshifts except the Golden Rule.

Thirty denominations, knowing the need to be too great for any one denomination to meet alone, are cooperating in a nationwide campaign.

It is a campaign for deepening the spiritual forces of men; for enlisting their hearts, and their pocket-books too. And every man and woman who loves America will be glad of a chance to help.

For the hope of America is Democracy and the Founder of Democracy was the Founder of the Church. It was He who first called men sons of God, and so made all men brothers.

Not as employers and employees, not as members of parties or sects, but as sons of God and brothers all let us work out our problems together.

To strengthen the Church is our first great task; out of the Church flows Faith.

—There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Home Missionary society held yesterday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal church parlors. The business meeting, at which the envelopes were opened for the Lenten offering, nearly $40 being secured, was followed by an interesting program on the work of the Home Missionary society among the negroes of the south. Later a delicious supper was served to about 145 members, following which a four-reel Americanization motion picture, "The Americanization of Tony," was presented.

SOME GOOD SEATS REMAIN.

For the Maurel-Seagle Recital at Oneonta Theatre Tonight.

The advance sale of seats for the joint Maurel-Seagle recital, the last of the Elks course, to be given at the Oneonta theatre tonight, was gratifyingly large, indicating an appreciation of the fame of these noted artists. However, Chairman Van Wier reports that there remain about 50 orchestra and box seats which can be secured today at the established price of $1.55, including war tax. They will doubtless be in demand early today.

The single admission tickets for the upper balcony will be on sale at the box office after 7 o'clock and will be sold at 50c, including war tax. The concert will be one of the musical treats of the season and none should miss it.

THE PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.

Gives Good Satisfaction to Large Audiences — Lou Wallace's Violin Solos and the Violin Quartet Notable Features.

Large audiences attended the concert given at the Oneonta theatre last evening at 7 and 9 o'clock by Gardner's Philharmonic orchestra, the house being packed for the first performance and well filled for the second. The program was one of the best yet given and it was keenly enjoyed by all. Mr. Gardner and the members of the orchestra are to be congratulated upon its notable success.

The first number was a march composed by Mr. Gardner and named by him The Philharmonics, and it was followed by Apple Blossoms, by Fritz Kreisler and Victor Jacoby, a selection above the usual of musical comedies.

The third number was given by the Violin Quartet, composed of H. E. Gardner, Lou Wallace, John Canning and Clyde Bouton, all vying with Mr. Gardner in painstaking effort, they rendering a Lullaby by Bachmann artistically to the delight of all.

Lou Wallace, a local student with Prof. Gardner, proved himself gifted and his violin solo, Heyre Katu, by Jene Hubay, was played with such skill that he was given an enthusiastic encore, he responding with Angel's Dream by Gustave Lange, his playing giving evidence of exceptional ability with the violin.

The combined orchestra did exceptionally well with the other two numbers on the program, one being a popular fox trot, Mystery, by Howard Johnson and Joseph Carina, and the last Stradella, an overture by Flotow.

After the last concert, the members of the orchestra voted to present to Prof. Gardner the orchestra's share of the proceeds of the evening. It may not be generally understood, but Mr. Gardner receives no remuneration for the time devoted to orchestra work, and this evidence of the appreciation of the members no doubt was gratifying to him.

It is interesting to note that at last night's concert there was the largest attendance of the season. There were capacity houses at both concerts and it is an indication of the popularity of Oneonta's premier musical organization that citizens turn out in such large numbers whenever it is announced to appear.

DISTRICT CONVENTION TODAY.

Past Noble Grand of Otsego District Gather in Annual Session.

The annual district meeting of the Past Noble Grand of Odd Fellowship of the Otsego district is called this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Odd Fellows temple in this city. There is important business to be transacted. The gathering will nominate to the Grand Master for appointment after August election, a district deputy grand master. There are two candidates for the honored office, Clarence A. Dunn, of Hartwick lodge, No. 271, and William G. Head, of Cherry Valley lodge, No. 192.

At 5 o'clock the ladies of Royal Rebekah lodge will serve a supper in the banquet hall for the visitors and resident members of the association. District Deputy Grand Master Sherman J. Stone hopes for a large attendance at the gathering.

Diamonds and an Auto.

Do you want them? Wouldn't it be swell? Well, you can have them. It's dead easy. Just place $5 with me each month, and I'll safely roll it at six per cent compound interest and hand you $1,000 for diamonds and jewelry. Make it $10 per month and I'll hand you $2,000, so that you can also have an auto. Wouldn't that be going some? Whoop-ee! I've been doing it for 31 years and have safely made small amounts of $1 or more roll up to several million dollars, and am now thus rolling up over two million more. But this isn't all, for you'll find it so darn easy that you'll roll up more for a bungalow, with a garage for the auto. Wouldn't it be nice? I am the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association. adv. 11

MOTORISTS RESPONDING.

Many New Members Enrolling in Oneonta Auto Club.

Many new members are being enrolled this year in the Auto club of this city, the proposal to make larger efforts to serve the motoring public meeting with approval and the response evidencing much interest. The secretary reports more than twice as many members as at the corresponding time last year.

One of the club members who handed in the name of a new member, with whom he had done a little missionary work, remarked that it would double the club membership if each member of last year would secure at least one new member for the current year. This would place double the amount in the hands of the executive committee to promote highway work and to advance the common interests. Motorists are cordially urged to send their names with a remittance of $2 for the year's dues to the secretary promptly. The price of Motorodum is to be raised on May 1 and the club cannot guarantee subscription to that valuable publication to those who do not renew before May 1st.

CHAUTAUQUA GUARANTORS.

Called to Meet at Chamber of Commerce Rooms Friday Evening.

For the purpose of planning the sale of tickets for the season a meeting of the Chautauqua guarantors of the Summer Chautauqua has been called for the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Friday evening of this week. At this gathering a representative of the Redpath company will be present and outline the program and announce the definite dates for the Oneonta Chautauqua. According to the representative here making the date for this meeting, the program will surpass that of last year which was quite generally agreed was the best the city has yet enjoyed. Guarantors should arrange to be present and give their advice upon the best manner in which to conduct the advance sale of tickets.

DISPOSAL OF GARBAGE.

Discussed at Meeting of City Board of Health Yesterday.

At a special meeting of the city board of health held yesterday, the matter of caring for garbage during the summer was discussed. It has been recognized that the matter has not been entirely satisfactorily handled in the past and effort is now being made to effect some arrangements whereby arrangements satisfactory alike to the city and the citizens and to the individual or firm having the contract. Health Officer Augustin hopes in a few days to have a plan that will prove acceptable to all to announce.

Earl C. Bates Ill.

Earl C. Bates, of Lewis & Bates, has been seriously ill and at the Fox hospital since Sunday, suffering from a complication of appendicitis and obstruction of the bowels. Dr. Charles R. Marsh, his attending physician, reports his condition more encouraging last evening. His complication prevents an operation for the relief of appendicitis at present. It is hoped that the next 24 hours will show a more decided improvement in which hope many friends of Mr. Bates will join.

Inner Tire & Supply Co. Opens Store.

The Oneonta Inner Tire and Supply company, the members of the firm being Jerry Wilson and W. H. Hoffman, has commenced business at 224 Main street and will handle the well-known Bull-Dog inner tires and blow-out patches. The company has a large supply on hand and will be able to fill orders promptly and at a reasonable price. For further particulars see half-page advertisement in today's Star.

Given Suspended Sentence.

Another motor traffic law violator appeared in city court yesterday morning in the person of Lewis Cole, who was arrested by Motorcycle Policeman O'Dell for leaving his car in a forbidden zone. Judge Huntington gave Cole a suspended sentence.

Bringing Their Cars with Them.

A. fund aggregated $829.50, which with $510 reported on Monday brings the total to date to $1,339.50. After noon today the restrictions will be withdrawn and the solicitors may canvass wherever they choose. Some firms are giving $100 for the work, which evidences that the association and the need of work are appreciated in the community.

E. W. Elmore was the speaker yesterday and he in the course of a stirring ten-minute talk emphasized that the contributors are not giving to charity but that they rather are buying service for the upbuilding of the young men and boys of the city, making an investment for the future of the city which will pay big returns. He said the workers should have faith, faith in the outcome and the worth of the cause and go forth with hope, confident that the results desired are to be attained. He gave much of inspiration and help to the workers. He was followed by General Beckstedt and Admiral Bookhout who urged their various captains to put forth extra effort to see all the individuals upon their lists before the others can solicit from them.

The ladies served an appetizing luncheon and the attendance, while not indicating that all the workers are taking the interest they should, yet that many are in earnest in efforts to put the association on a sound financial basis and assure the improvements included in the year's program.

At the luncheon today, at which it is hoped that a decided boost will be given to the total sum secured, City Attorney Owen C. Becker will be the speaker. It is hoped that all the canvassers who can will attend and give their aid in putting the association over the top.

DEATH OF E. HAROLD LANE

Passes Away at Onsego Sanitarium—Funeral at Binghamton.

E. Harold Lane, son of Mrs. S. H. Lane of 2 Reynolds avenue, this city, and a young man well and favorably known here, passed away at the Onsego sanitarium at Mt. Vision late Monday night, aged about 39 years. He suffered an attack of pleurisy more than two years ago, following which tuberculosis developed, from which he had since suffered. He had been receiving treatment at the sanitarium since. Two weeks since he suffered another attack of pleurisy and his heart failed, causing his death. The body was removed last night to the home of his wife's parents in Binghamton, where the funeral services are to be held. The arrangements were not known in the city last night.

Mr. Lane was born in this city and attended both the High and the Normal schools. He served for some time afterward in the United States navy. Later he returned and was for several years employed as a railway mail clerk, working on the D. & H., during which time he resided here and later on the Ulster and Delaware, when he resided in Kingston.

He married four years ago in August last Miss Hannah Steere of Binghamton and she with a son, Master William Steere Lane; his mother, Mrs. Lane of this city, and two sisters, Miss Vida Lane, now teaching in Port Washington, and Miss Margaret Lane, who is teaching in Stony Point, survive him.

Mr. Lane was a member of the Masonic lodge in Binghamton and of the First Methodist church of this city. It is expected that he will be given a Masonic burial. He was a bright young man of many pleasing characteristics and the sympathy of all will be extended to the bereaved family.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Timothy Mahaney.

Margaret Kelly, wife of Timothy Mahaney of 14 Ann street, died at the family home Tuesday morning at 8:25 o'clock, after a long illness, she having been in failing health for more than a year and for a long time practically helpless. The funeral services are to be held from St. Mary's church Thursday morning at 7 o'clock with a requiem high mass. It is now expected that the body will be taken to Binghamton for interment there.

Born in Ireland Oct. 1, 1841, she came to this country in early life and was united in marriage with her husband at Saratoga Springs, where he was track foreman of the yards of the Delaware and Hudson for some years. They have resided in Oneonta for nearly 40 years and she was well known, especially to all the older residents here.

Surviving her are the husband, one sister, Miss Anna Kelly, residing with her here, and one sister, Mrs. William Puckett of Saratoga Springs.

Mrs. Currier Improving.

Mrs. Charles P. Currier, who on Monday underwent an operation for the relief of gall stones at the Fox Memorial hospital with Dr. Cutler, the surgeon, is reported as doing nicely and her recovery, unless complications develop, is anticipated. Mrs. Currier is the popular forelady at the Market street plant of the Quality Mills, and her many friends there and about the city are gratified to learn of her favorable condition.

How Do Your Rugs Make You Feel?

Have you ever thought of the effect your rugs have on you?

Some rugs stand up and hit you and frazzle your nerves to threads.

Some rugs soothe you and pet you until you purr like a kitten.

There is a difference to the feet, from the sturdy, rugged feel of a Body Brussels to the soft, luxurious touch of a Wilton.

But more than that, there is a difference in color and design, and this determines whether you want to smash the dishes whenever you look at them, or whether they are a delightful part of a harmonious whole.

We consider this when we buy rugs. Do you?

MARTYRS TO FAITH

Hopi People Punished for Embracing Christianity.

Government Ethnologist, Investigating "Mound of Death," Finds Evidence of Truth of Story Long Current in the Southwest.

Ethnologically speaking, the Southwest is a region of many mysteries. There, in fortified villages built on shelves of rock high up on canyon walls, lived the cliff dwellers, nobody knows how long ago. Perched on lofty heights are ruined castles and towers. Over the mesa tops are scattered the remains of many ancient towns.

One of these ruined towns is relatively recent, having been destroyed in the year 1700, and its history, fortunately preserved, is most remarkable. It was called Awatobi, and all that remains of it today is a huge rubbish heap, which is known to the Hopi Indians as the Mound of Death.

It was a Hopi town, populous and thriving, and was attacked and razed by the inhabitants of seven other Pueblo villages, who killed all the men and carried off the young women and children.

Dr. J. Walker Fawkes, government ethnologist in chief, having learned the story, undertook to excavate the mound of rubbish, and thereby obtained ample evidence of the truth of the tradition.

It seems that Awatobi was first to welcome the early Spanish priests, and to embrace Christianity. To this circumstance the neighboring villages attributed a failure of rain. The new religion was suspected to be a kind of sorcery, and it was decided that the only remedy lay in wiping out the offending town, together with its population, which, according to the Spanish mission records, numbered about eight hundred souls.

From the viewpoint of the Hopi people to be a sorcerer was and is today the worst of crimes. After all the good folks have prayed all night for rain a wizard may blow away the clouds with a single puff of his breath. Sickness is always due to sorcery, and persons suspected of witchcraft are even nowadays made away with in secret.

The attack was decided upon at a secret meeting in the pueblo of Walpi. A certain spring was appointed as the

Merit That Makes Mileage —In Tires for the Smaller Cars

Such extraordinary competence and carefulness as are characteristic of all Goodyear manufacture likewise characterize Goodyear's building of tires for the smaller cars.

Only very unusual experience and endeavor make possible the high relative value built into the 30x3, 30x3½, and 31x4-inch Goodyear Tires in our Plant No. 2, the world's largest factory devoted to these sizes.

In addition to the larger sizes Goodyear builds, a daily production averaging 20,000 tires of these smaller sizes alone makes them easily available, regardless of the big demand, to owners of Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, and other cars taking these sizes.

If you are one of these owners, go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He carries a stock.

REFUSE $5,000,000 FOR ART

German Government Cannot Sell Altar Piece to America—Belongs to Belgium.

Berlin.—An offer of $5,000,000 has been made by an American to the German government for sections of the famous altar piece painted by Jan and Pieter Van Eyck, formerly in the cathedral of St. Bavon, Ghent, and now in the Berlin museum, says the ageblatt.

It is said the government cannot accept the offer, as the treasure must be returned to Belgium, under the terms of the Versailles treaty.

Germany, however, must pay the Hohenzollern family for this work of art as a part of the settlement for the taking over of royal holdings, the newspaper says.

How to Live

MENTAL HABITS.

No one escapes trouble, so whatever may be your condition you have no monopoly in suffering. You have your compensations. Don't whine and get the complaint habit. "Make the best of things." This homely phrase is, after all, the shibboleth of life. It is the faculty of seeing some good—of drawing some inspiration from the most hidden source, that makes life endurable, that glorifies it. Life is pleasant or unpleasant, hard or easy, according to the way you look at it, the way you think of life. Thoughts govern action, and he who governs his thoughts is master of his destiny. Destiny is not about you, but within you. Healthful, hopeful, optimistic thoughts are essential to strong minds and bodies.

Worry is one of the very bad mental habits; it injures beyond repair certain cells of the brain; and the brain being the nutrient center of the body, the other organs become gradually injured, and when some disease of these organs or a combination of them arises, death finally ensues. Thus may the habit of worrying kill. Only too often mental habits are morbid in their nature, and consequently cast a morbid influence upon the physical system over which they rule. Especially is this true when our minds are centered on the involuntary functions of the body. A man who has his mind constantly upon his digestion will soon have indigestion. Nature purposes to run her own machinery, and when we undertake to supplant it by human plans or artificial ways we destroy the natural process and disease results.

Thinking of what is eaten during or after meals is a dangerous practice, and if continued until it becomes a habit will be a greater obstacle in the way of curing any disease of the stomach than any other factor.

A person who suffers pain, and suffers his mind to revert to it constantly, establishes a nerve habit of pain, and the sense of pain grows, while the capacity to endure pain lessens. There can be no greater calamity to chronic invalids than that they get together and tell their ailments to each other. Such a course is but nursing disease and rendering it less curable. It should always be the aim to cultivate reverse habits of expression to those we feel during illness. Sickness is not the least of the opportunities in life. It is the time for reflection. It does not come by accident usually, but is the effect of a cause. Reason and reflect upon the cause rather than the effect. The break in the wrong modes of living which is present affords the best opportunity to change the bad mental habits and a start in better ways.

Many people go into society just for the purpose of telling their aches and pains and troubles. Such people should be sent to the pest house and kept in quarantine until they are cured; they are as untouched by the myriad happy influences of life as the mole is by the light of a star or the flash of a comet. They say "No one is as bad off as I am." Their salutation is always one that plunges at once into the condition of the liver, stomach, nerves, or some bodily ailment. Forget it! Don't get the habit of talking about sickness with every one you meet. Can't you find a topic of conversation more elevating than that of your aches and pains and troubles?

Cheerfulness is to the body what sunshine is to vegetation. Hence with a person who is in search of health, the essential thing to do is to cultivate cheerfulness, hopefulness, courage, and not allow one's self to think of his ills, much less to talk about them, except to those who may find it necessary to know them in order to properly direct his life. LEARN HOW TO LIVE.

Many people treble their troubles, making three out of one, by looking forward, looking on, and looking back. Troubles grow mightily, if you brood over them.

Fatigue which is not recovered from after a night's rest, is incompatible with the leading of a normal, efficient, wholesome, and happy life.

The aim of life is to produce the perfect man, so one must watch over one's integrity of mind and body.

The requirements of health are good air, good food, suitable clothing, cleanliness, and exercise and rest.

Work keeps the human being in contact with stimuli from without that are necessary to his health.

Essay on Geese.

The following composition on geese was written, according to Capper's Weekly, by a schoolboy in St. Louis: "Geese is a heavy-set bird with a head on one side and a tail on the other. His feet is set so far back on his running gear that they nearly miss his body. Some geese is ganders and has a curl in his tail. Ganders don't lay or set. They just eat, loaf and go swimming. If I had to be a geese, I would rather be a gander. Geese do not give milk, but give eggs, but for me, give me liberty or give me death."

He Passed.

"At one of our examinations," says a member of the faculty of a western university, "a nervous student had been instructed to write out examples of the indicative, subjunctive, potential and exclamatory moods. His efforts resulted as follows: 'I am endeavoring to pass an English examination. If I answer 20 questions, I shall pass. If I answer 12, I may pass. God help me!'"—Harper's Magazine.

TALK O' TOWN PLEASURES

Delhi's Home Talent Play Scores A Marked Success Monday Evening.

Delhi, April 13.—The Eastern Star play, "The Talk of the Town," given at the Delhi opera house Monday evening, was a real treat from start to finish. Long before the appointed hour of 8:15 the hall was packed to the doors with people not only from Delhi but also from the nearby towns. Will Bingham, director of the play, is to be congratulated upon his choice of characters and great credit is due them upon the exceptional way in which they performed their parts. Especial mention might be made of Gladys Kerr, George Cavan, John Griffin, John Bramley, Emily Begg, Hascall Dulles and Beth Coors.

The Village Fiddler, composed by the village matrons, was perhaps the best performance of the night which ever has been acted in the opera house.

The cast of characters and added attractions follow:

Mrs. Calamity Jane Pickens Gladys Kerr
Emily Begg
John Griffin
John Bramley
George Cavan
Hascall Dulles
Beth Coors
Will Bingham
Sheldon Edgerton
John Bramley

Lucinda Snigging

Scene.—The action of the play takes place in the living room of the farmhouse during four days in June.

Guests at the Lawn Party — I. O. Warming, Edna Danahy, Gertrude Stevens, Myrtle Watson, Lella Marvin.

The Happy Hooligans — George Scott, Billy Meehan, Russell Wenzel and Floyd Gregory.

Vocal Solo — Clarence Becker.

Added Attraction — Mandy.

It may be of interest and a satisfaction to the most presenting the play to know that the writer heard the performance discussed by a group of gentlemen, strangers in town, whose home town and cities are much larger than Delhi and they pronounced it the best local talent affair that they ever had the pleasure to enjoy.

HOLDS COMPANY NEGLIGENT

Coroner Woods. Renders Verdict in Case of Stephen Voece, Killed Monday by Live Wire.

Grand George, April 13.—Coroner C. R. Woods of Delhi was called to Grand George today to pass on the case of the death of Stephen Voece, who lost his life yesterday by contact with a live wire of the farm of Thomas Moore, near Grand George. Andrew J. Roe, who was driving the load of gravel on which Voece was riding, when he came in contact with the wire, testified that while passing under the wire he felt something strike him on the shoulder, knocking him off the load and when he had regained his feet, he saw Voece lying flat on the ground and on reaching him found he was dead.

Thomas Moore, owner of the farm where the accident happened, testified that during the freshest last March three poles on the line owned by the Tri-County Electric Light and Power company were broken down, and soon after the company adjusted the wire to a broken pole, but did not replace the other poles nor adjust the other two wires.

Judge Grant, president of the Tri-County company, testified that the company had not been able to make complete repairs on account of not being able to reach the place with poles on account of the snow drifts.

Dr. Vogt, who was called at the time of the accident, testified that upon an examination he found that Voece met his death by coming in contact with a live wire. Dr. Woods, the coroner, rendered the following verdict: That Stephen Voece met his death on April 12, 1920, by contact with a transmission wire belonging to the Tri-County Electric Light and Power company. From evidence before me it appears that said company was negligent in not elevating wire to a sufficient height when they made repairs last March.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR

Rev. Frank M. Caughey Formally Installed at Services Held Last Evening in Dietz Street Church.

Rev. Frank M. Caughey, who for the past few weeks has been occupying the pulpit at the United Presbyterian church on Dietz street, was formally installed as pastor of that church at services held last evening. Mr. Caughey and his bride of a few months came to Oneonta from Pennsylvania and during their short stay here have been favorably impressed both those in and outside of the United Presbyterian congregation. Mr. Caughey is a young man with much "vim" and vitality and only recently returned from service overseas as a chaplain in the American army.

That the church cannot do its best work unless the pastor has the hearty cooperation of the congregation was the keynote of the addresses given at the church last evening by the three Delaware county pastors having charge of the installation. In the charge to the new pastor, Rev. G. M. McKnight outlined his conception of the duties of a minister of the Gospel, while in the charge to the people, Rev. R. R. Irwin of North Kortright emphasized the importance of cooperation. This church has failed of its purpose if the members of the congregation fail in their loyalty. Mr. Irwin said.

Rev. H. J. McClure of DeLancey had charge of the services of the evening and preached the installation sermon. He referred to trained leadership as the greatest need of the hour and urged that more young men and women rally to the cause of winning souls to Christ. He read an interesting letter from Rev. W. B. Smiley, former pastor of the local United Presbyterian church, in which Dr. Smiley extended his best wishes for the continued religious prosperity of the church and paid a tribute to the new pastor, whom he said was a young man highly thought of by his acquaintances in Western Pennsylvania.

Following the installation services, a reception was given in the church parlors to Rev. and Mrs. Caughey, who were made acquainted with many of the people in the congregation. There was a large attendance at the services, the church auditorium being nearly filled, and there also were several local pastors present to welcome the young minister.

The members of the United Presbyterian church are highly pleased with the choice of their new pastor and citizens of Oneonta generally will unite with them in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Caughey, a long and successful term of service in Oneonta.

Fined for Public Intoxication.

Walter Wheeler of North Franklin was fined $3 by Judge Huntington in city court yesterday, after he had pleaded guilty to a charge of public intoxication. He was arrested the previous evening on Main street by Patrolman Brownell, who found him in a decidedly intoxicated condition, he having been drinking Jamaica ginger, which apparently has the much-talked-of "kick."

E. L. Foote, the well-known horse dealer of Hobart, announces that an express load of horses which he recently purchased in Iowa has been held up because of the railroad strike, but when the horses arrive, announcement will be made in the advertising columns of The Star.

What Price For a Suit?

What is your guide in deciding on the price you wish to pay for clothes? Do you expect your dollar of 1920 to measure off a 1914 dollar's worth of value? Do you demand a suit at a fixed price, a price you have always paid for a suit, to bring you a certain quality of fabric and tailoring?

Or do you look for a definite quality of clothes and pay what they are worth—at the present dollar's buying power? What you get for your money is the important question for you—not what you pay.

Some are expensive no matter how cheaply they are priced.

are not reliners, and should not be classified with reliners. Reliners are made from layers of canvas cemented together. They are very light material and the plies can be separated very easily. They are not made to stand the pressure like BULL DOG INNER TIRES.

are constructed of best grades of tire stock, vulcanized over regular tire molds, which forms them so that they fit in your casing without a wrinkle. They completely line the inside of the casing.

are covered with a heavy coating of the best self vulcanizing cement and the heat from the road causes them to vulcanize themselves in and become part of the old casing. BULL DOG INNER TIRES never HEAT, PINCH THE TUBE or WRINKLE.

would be worth the money asked for them if they wore out with the tire, but they do not, they can be used over several times.

may be used in several tires. They can be removed with gasoline and put in other casings. There is usually enough cement left to be used three times but should there not be enough, we will furnish cement put up in cans so that INNER TIRE can be painted over again and used as before.

are very easy to install, you simply clean the inside of the casing with gasoline. Moisten cement on INNER TIRE with gasoline and insert in casing. Fit carefully along edges, put in tube as before, put on rim and inflate before cement has a chance to set, and go ahead and forget it.
